How will we be living in the future?

MEGGAT

An interesting question which we at Hettich are focusing close attention on to develop far-sighted solutions that are always ahead of their time. Megatrends are changing the world and influencing us in all walks of life. They are set to have a lasting effect on the way we live, on how we do things and on the way we furnish our homes. Four of them are of particular significance to the transformation set to take place in lifestyle and home living concepts: urbanisation, customisation, silver society and work evolution. They will have far reaching impacts on future demands on the design, practical convenience and space economics of furniture.

Fascinated by solutions.
We call it
